

It would be very nice if the Federal Government would keep there noses out of State Government business, as our State Attorney General is doing a fine job, and don't need outside assisstance from you {the Federal Government} to do his job.